
Lower panel isolates the Born term and its compensator; it is not a complete NLO cross section.
Alternative kernels illustrate finite-scale sensitivity and are not Pythia predictions.